

LE CLOS
DE BEAUREPAIRE

Booklet 2027
WEDDING

Prologue

Once upon a time

Nestled in the Aube valley, an agricultural estate once marked the rhythm of the seasons. The chalk stones, the old dovecote, the large wooden barn... everything seemed to have always been there.

Until the day a new chapter began. That of a passionately restored estate, designed to host genuine, elegant, unforgettable moments.

Today, at Clos de Beaurepaire, each couple writes a unique chapter. Under the ancient trees, in the golden light of the glass roof or around the fire pit at the end of the evening... Laughter echoes, glances are exchanged, and memories are created.

Welcome to a place where your story takes root.

Le Clos de Beaurepaire

3 days just for you

From Friday 2pm to Sunday 6pm

or

From Tuesday 2pm to Thursday 5pm

Friday

The welcome, getting settled, the final adjustments. And in the evening, a shared dinner to gently kick off the weekend.

SATURDAY

The estate is slowly waking up. The preparations take shape, the ceremony begins, smiles are exchanged in the courtyard. Dinner takes place in the barn, the party continues, and the night stretches on in an atmosphere of sharing.

Sunday

We savor what remains of the weekend, taking our time in the park, strolling around the grounds in a different way; it's time for brunch, conversations, laughter...

Tuesday

On Tuesday, things take shape. We set up, we prepare, we get together. And in the evening, a simple moment to kick off the party.

Wednesday

On Wednesdays, everything comes alive. Glances, gestures, bursts of laughter. The ceremony, the dinner, the evening light, and the party that prolongs each emotion.

THURSDAY

A brunch, quiet conversations, a last moment together, before closing this shared parenthesis.

A wedding at Clos de Beaurepaire is:

A lively and charming setting

Three hectares of parkland, a 19th-century dovecote, an elm wood barn and natural light... Here, elegance blends with simplicity.

The soul of the estate

The Barn

Beneath its wooden frame and chalk walls, the Grange du Clos is much more than a reception hall. It is here that glances meet, that promises are whispered amidst toasts. With its 700 m² bathed in natural light, the Grange combines character and softness.

The large bay windows, overlooking the courtyard on one side and the fields on the other, offer a setting that changes with the rhythm of the day and the seasons. You go in for an evening, and you leave with a memory etched in your mind.

- 700 m2 of reception space
- Up to 360 people can be seated at round tables with a dance floor.
- Backup plan in case of bad weather
- Furniture included

“One place, several moments”

The park & the main courtyard

Ceremonies, meetings & first moments

This is often where it all begins.

A path in the grass, a flowery arch, benches set up under the weeping willow... In the park, the secular ceremony takes place in the heart of nature, surrounded by centuries-old trees and lulled by the silence of the place.

The couple's photos are taken along the way, under a tree, in front of the Maison Beaupaire, or in the golden light of a field.

Later, the main courtyard becomes the beating heart of the cocktail reception.

Voices rise, bubbles fizz, guests scatter between the brazier, wrought iron lounges, and the large terrace paved with champagne bricks.

It's lively, simple, joyful — like the start of a beautiful evening “Places have a soul. And sometimes, they know how to welcome yours.”
